

CREATION OF A GITHUB REPOSITORY

We were tasked with the creation of a repo in GitHub, a platform designed for sharing code with others, and making this process as swift as it can be. We will just upload files here that will be used for our grading during the partial, and all of our future activities will be also uploaded here. GitHub also allows for easy tracking of versions of files and knowing what and when do contributors upload or download files